

Southwestern

“All human beings must make the journey to universal understanding and perception of the one common human destiny of all human beings. This is the goal of the work of the Khali-fah, the Muslim, the Believer. “ (IWDM)

Tawfeeq Ali

Na'eem Rashada

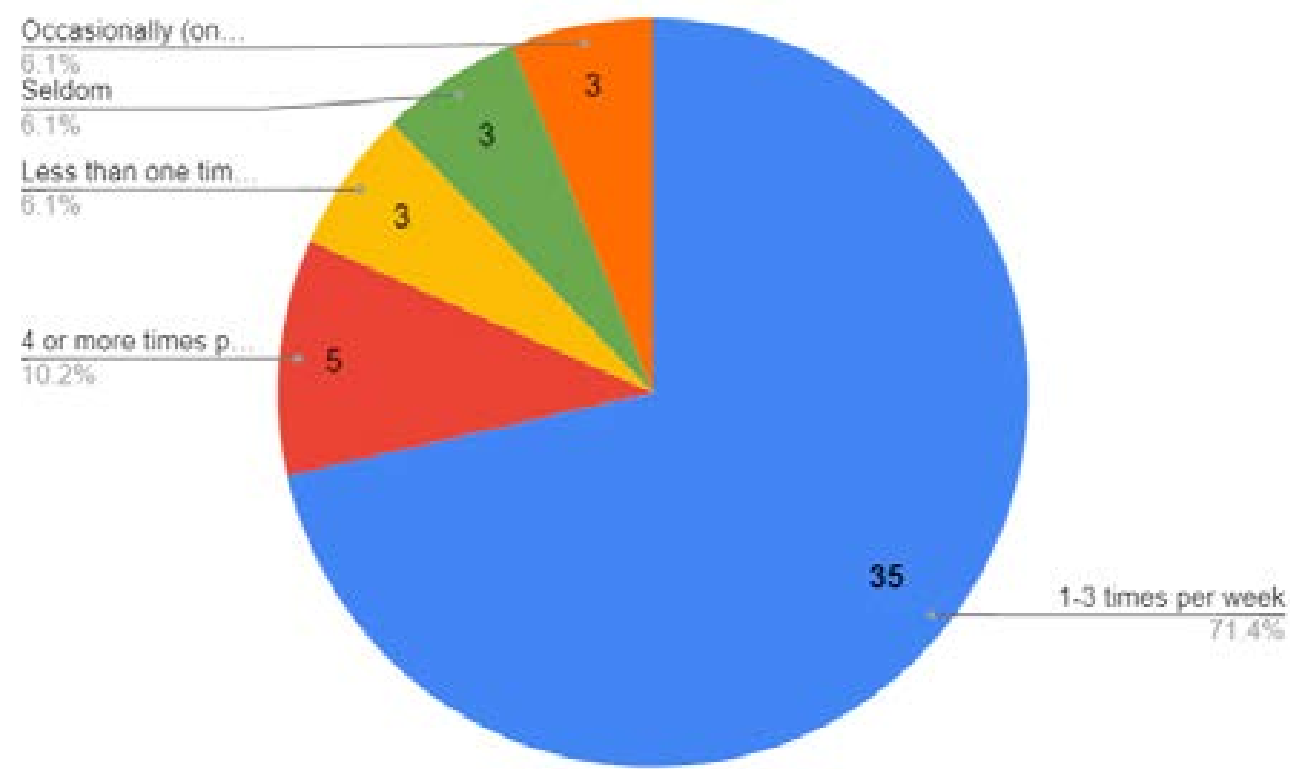

Kimberly Speight

Southwest

Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas

How often do you attend your local Masjid or Islamic Center?

Collective Takeaway: Strengths

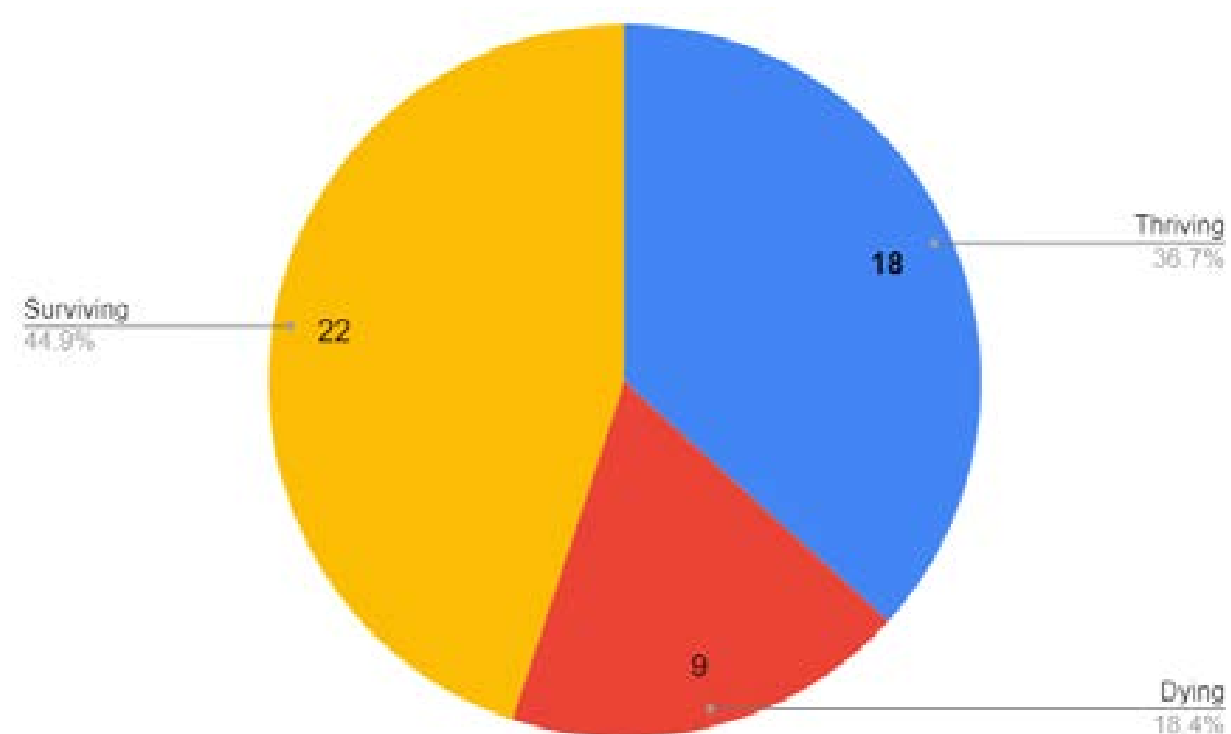

“All human beings must make the journey to universal understanding and perception of the one common human destiny of all human beings. This is the goal of the work of the Khalifah, the Muslim, the Believer. “ (IWDM)

Collective Takeaways: Areas of Growth

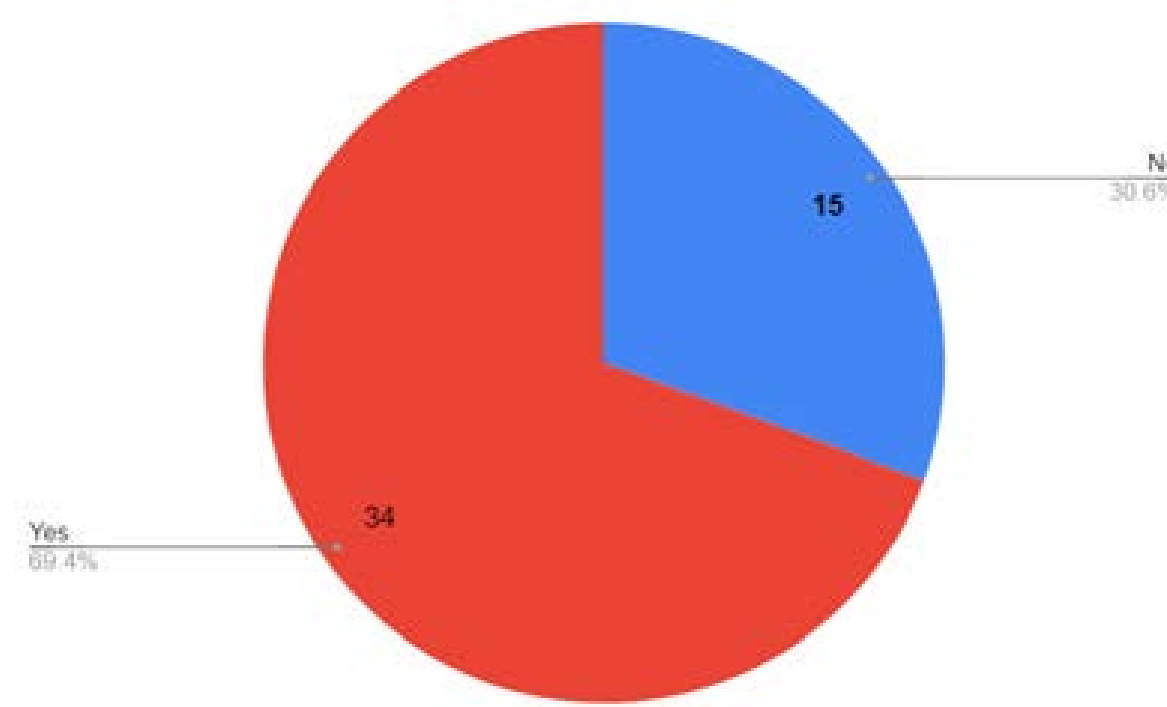

“Establishing programs for young members of the community.”

IWMM's 9 POINT PLAN

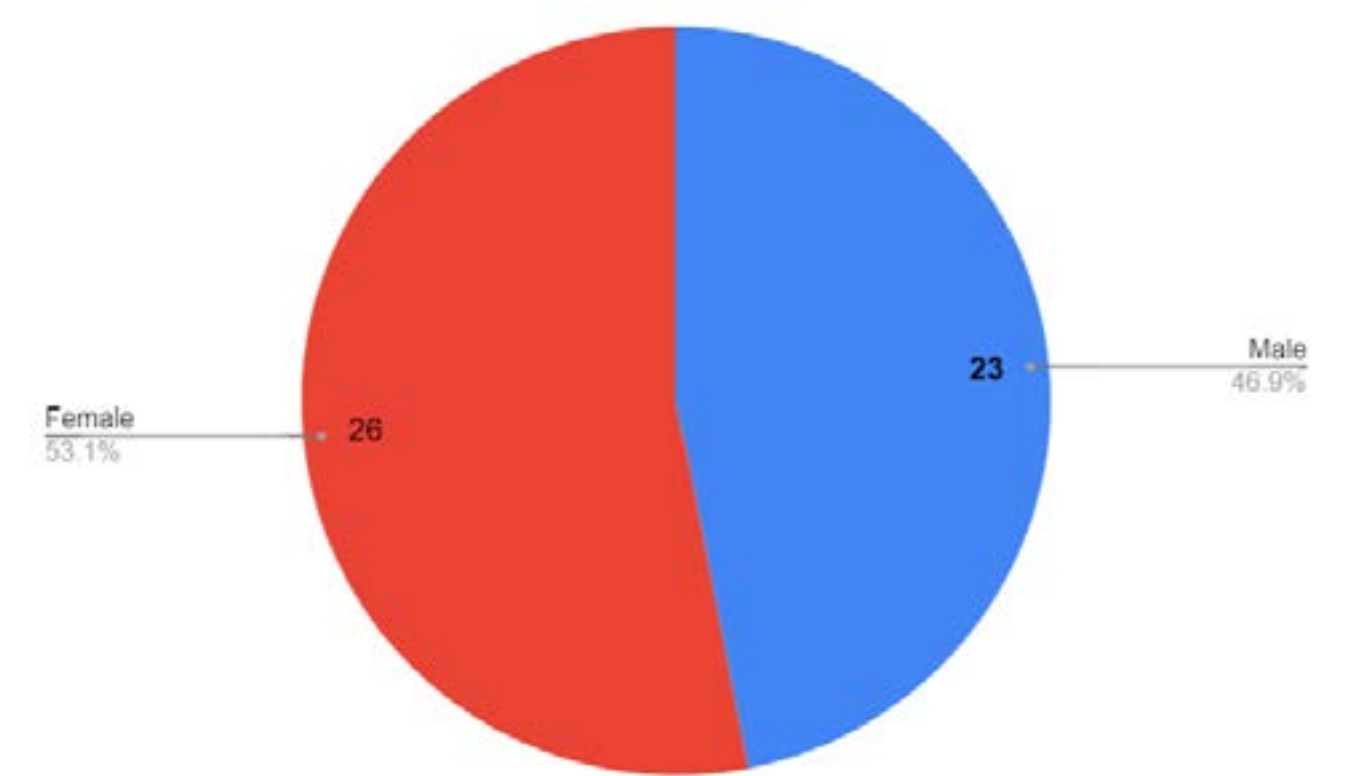

Which word best describes your local Masjid or Islamic Center?

Does your local Masjid or Islamic Center offer programs and/or services that impact the larger community in which you are located?

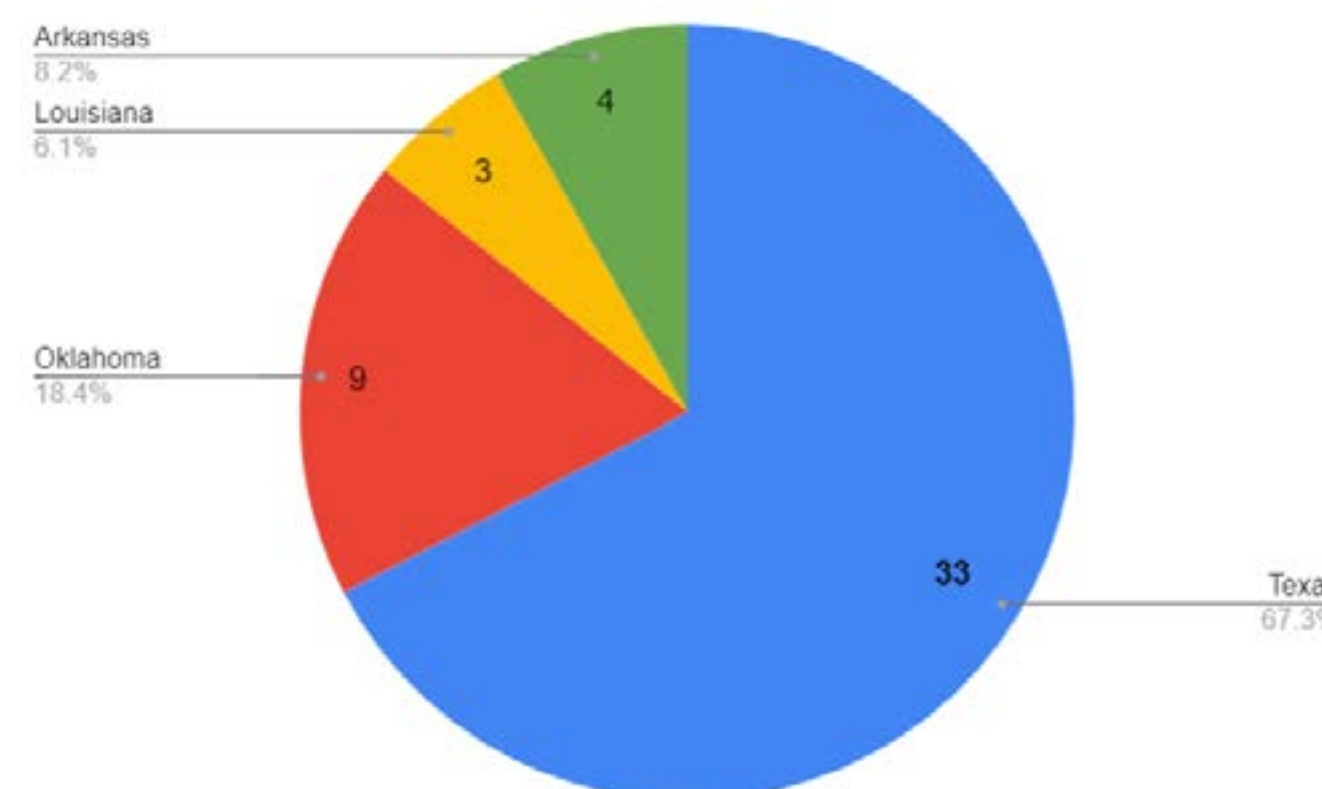

What is your gender?

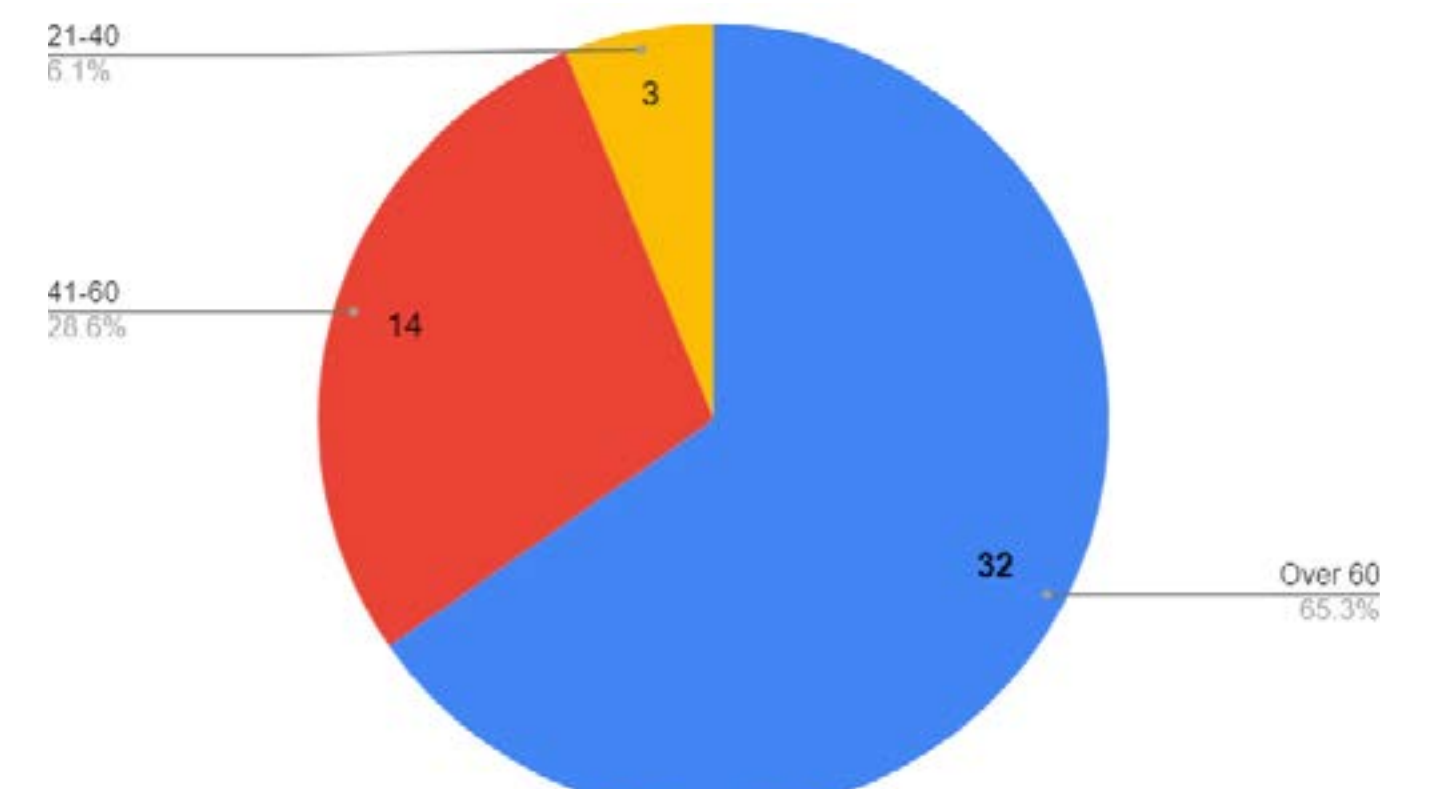

Recurring Themes in Data:

- Education
- Community Engagement
- Leadership Development
- Youth Engagement
- Islamic Education
- Mutual Support

Survey Respondent State:

Survey Respondent Age:

Survey Noticings:

- Realistic concern of takeover of IWDM communities
- Concern for community (local and national) Islamic education
- Increasing education of IWDM's Knowledge Body and Language
- Several established community initiatives as National replication models:
 - Brothers' social activities to strengthen male resources, mentorship, and leadership
- Organization is focused on a mission of DAWAH
- Articulated concern for youth engagement
- Youth as integral for community growth/development

Survey Wonderings

- What are the vulnerabilities that allow an IWDM community to be taken over by an outside community?
- What measures are being put in place at individual/ local masjid to ensure that our communities are not taken over?
- What steps can be taken to ensure that all of our communities that are surviving/dying are resuscitated?
- Are programs established to mentor/develop women in our community in all capacities of community development?